

new mexico mobility economic resilience & substance use disorder workshop series

North Central New Mexico Supporting Recovery Wellness and Resilience Workshop

May 6, 2021 1 – 3 pm Mountain | 3 – 5 pm Eastern

Agenda times listed as Mountain Daylight Time.

DRAFT

1 – 1:10 pm Welcome and Introductions

- Terrence McDermott, Community Solutions Specialist, Innovation Center, U.S. Department of Agriculture Rural Development
- Rachel Beyerle, Senior Program Manager, National Association of Development Organizations
- Monica Abeita, Executive Director, North Central New Mexico Economic Development District

1:10 – 1:25 pm Project ECHO: Building a Health & Wellness Network in New Mexico

- Joanna Katzman, MD, MPSH, Sr. Associate Director of Project ECHO, Professor, Department of Neurosurgery, University of New Mexico Health Sciences Center

1:25 – 1:40 pm Treatment Access: Options and Resources

- New Mexico Behavioral Health Referral Network (NMBHRN) Behavioral Health Services Division, Children, Youth Family Department, and Department of Health

1:40 – 1:55 pm Recovery and Resiliency

- Ambrose Baros, LCSW, LADAC, Executive Director, Hoy Recovery and Hoy Farm Fresh

1:55 – 2:25 pm Community Services Coordination Discussion

- Community Services
- Employment and Economic Development
- Housing

2:25 – 2:50 pm Breakout Groups (two breakout rooms)

Facilitators: Andrea Hamre, Research Associate, Western Transportation Institute, Mobility & Public Transportation Program and Carrie Kissel, Associate Director, NADO Research Foundation

Small group discussions will cover such topics as: How do you address substance use disorder in the workforce? What coordination currently exists between services, and where could coordination be expanded? How does mobility and transportation tie into substance use disorder recovery needs? How does housing availability and affordability affect substance use disorder recovery?

2:50 – 3:00 pm Report Out and Wrap Up

Thank you for participating in the New Mexico workshops!
Visit www.ruraltransportation.org/nm-workshops for resources.